

KEY PERSONNEL

Name: Gavin Lang

Position: Civil Engineer Projects
Verve Energy

Diesel & Wind Systems

Correspondence: Phone: (08) 9424 1830
e-mail: gavin.lang@verveenergy.com.au

Qualifications: Bachelor of Engineering (Civil), 1973, UWA.
Graduate Diploma in Applied Science (Computer Studies) 1994, Edith Cowan University.

Professional Expertise: Project development, management and supervision, feasibility studies, wind resource analysis, wind farm micro-siting project environmental management, stakeholder management, road and hardstand development and design, general civil works design, structural design, site layouts, mapping and presentation using major CAD software products.

Professional Interests: Development and project management of wind farms and related system interconnection, all civil aspects of design and development of wind farms, wind farm environmental and social impact, economics of renewable projects.

Current responsibilities: Development of various wind diesel projects for internal and external clients including wind turbine micro-siting, power station layout and design, access design, general civil and structural design.

Career highlights: Design and project management of civil, structural and wind resource aspects of the $45 million Albany wind farm.

Member Institutes: Member of the Institution of Engineers, Australia.

Other: Current senior first aid certificate.

---- // ----